2012 Sun Chase Vineyard Pinot Noir

This wine is Tamber Bey's first release of a Pinot Noir, fruit sourced from one of the highest elevated vineyards in the Sonoma Coast appellation. Aged entirely in French oak barrels, this new wine brings out incredible depth and spice sensation of the fruit.

Winemaker Notes:

The Sun Chase Vineyard Pinot Noir has a medium-dark garnet color. This wine is complex with a layered nose offering aromas of red fruit, Asian spices, a hint of orange and a restrained minerality. There is a generous mouth-feel with a soft, seamless texture. Lots of red fruit again with predominate pomegranate notes, lifted up by a good acidity. A very long and intense finish with notes of sweet vanilla.

Sun Chase Vineyard

A 40 acre vineyard located in the Petaluma Gap region of the Sonoma Coast at an elevation of between 900 and 1200 feet on the western slope of Sonoma Mountain, this vineyard is above the fog line and the fruit sees sun all day – every day. We source about 8 tons of meticulously farmed Pinot Noir fruit of two French clones, Dijon 828 and 777.
