2014 Merlot Deux Chevaux Vineyard

As coined by then head Sommelier at the French Laundry, Paul Roberts, this is how Merlot should taste. Almost Cabernet in style, this starts with big black fruit but settles into a smoothness that only a true merlot can deliver.

Winemaker Notes

The nose blends fleshy stone fruits, with a hint of strawberry and blackberry pie mixed with a little smokiness and lavender. The mouth is fresh and round, with red and black cherry blending with violet, black licorice and vanilla bean. The earthy finish delivers cocoa powder and cigar box notes.

Deux Chevaux Vineyard

The Deux Chevaux Vineyard is a 60-acre vineyard situated in the Yountville Appellation, north-east of the town of Yountville. The vineyard is planted with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc and Chardonnay. Deux Chevaux is French for “two horses,” the namesake of Tamber Bey.

About Tamber Bey

With a winery located in Calistoga at the Sundance Ranch, Tamber Bey is a family-owned and operated that produces wine from its two estate owned vineyards at the heart of the Napa Valley, the Estate Vineyard in the Oakville Appellation and the Deux Chevaux Vineyard in the Yountville Appellation, as well as sourced fruit from seven premium vineyards in Napa, Sonoma and Lake counties. The name Tamber Bey reflects the names of owner Barry Waitte’s first two Arabian endurance horses, Tamborina (Tamber) and Bayamo (Bey).
